Dear Principal,

“Enrichment Program for Science Talents”

Organized by Education Development Program (EDP) of HKUST

With the objectives to raise teaching quality, awareness and learning interest in Science education in local secondary schools, Education Development Program (EDP), School of Science of The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology has devoted time and resources to developing and promoting science programs and activities over the past decade. In the prospective year, EDP will be offering the “Enrichment Program for Science Talents” to interested secondary school students. This program provides students with an accelerated pathway to learn fundamental concepts of Science. For further information, please visit EDP website at <http://www.edp.ust.hk/enrich/index.html> or contact us at 2358-5084.

Yours sincerely,

Professor T.K. Ng
